Prophetic Word from Yeshua given on July 16th 2021 at 0:54am GMT+2

Whether Parody or Poetry might fit better wor this word, I don't know. You can decide on your own

Note:

When it speaks about Nancy Pelosi, keep in mind, I am not American. So there is not much a chance of big influence when I get words about that. However, let the Holy Spirit lead a guide you through this word.

Start of the prophetic word:

Nancy Pelosi – Nancy Polluted.

Poured out poison polluted the soil.

The pope and the (false) prophets perfected.

They play a game, the game of death.

Principalities and powers of darkness.

Power players, puppets and pawns

spilled out of my mouth it's poison.

Pardon for sin, not any longer, not anymore, period.

Fantasy presented to play the game.

Precious presidents, painful for people.

Past, presence, future I know it all.

Oh pope you are wrecked, leading people astray.

Previous popes all the same, (they) never regret.

Pakistan, Praises I hear. Poland, where are you?

Princes and presidents, people oppressed.

While you play, come and go, I always stay.

Never again will you come back and fly in that plane.

Airdrops of water, polluted with sand from the abyss.

Run and hide, Jackals and pride.

Your show is plummeting, coming to an end.

The story you painted the party you played (joined).

It's over, your name forgotten forever.

Pelosi, pardon you sinner, perhaps you could stay.

But your name is erased, out of my book.

Please, don't follow her ways, (of) Polluted Nancy.

No way of the sinner will lead to Me.

People with power, very few that I see in My Kingdom, that is not of this world.

You remain there if you walk in pride, in sin of the abomination (where) you bow (before).

Come, My people, play with Me, in the Garden, the playground of joy.

The power-players are not here.

You play with the sheep and the shepherd, the eternal, the powerful perfect lamb of EL (God).

Praise, praises and Glory in His presence.

The father, the prince of peace forever and ever, Amen

Praise Yeshua your King!

End of prophetic word.

Be blessed and Yeshua be with you!
