

Prophetic Word from Yeshua, given on November 19th 2021 around 9:00pm

Note:

Read the word in prayer with the guidance of the Holy Spirit

Now the word:

There we go - and reap what we (will) sow

Today we sow - tomorrow we go

You better pray today – and I will tell you what to say

Don't grief about people who don't want to be with Me

But pray for those, those with eyes but cannot see

For those with ears that they can hear

To let them know of Who am I, so they don't have to fear

But fear the ONE who's able to cast you in the fire

The burning flames is not what I desire

Fauchi is the one who will be going there to burn

Not many in high places are willing to repent and turn

Away from all their wicked plans and deeds

They are the ones in midst the field those nasty weeds

But soon when I will send My angels as the harvest is ready now

Don't hesitate and don't ask questions all that you don't know

The plow that's in your hand, only forward you can look and go

What's left behind is history but future is where you shall sow

Joy and peace is coming soon for those who sown with tears

As righteousness is on their field, the fruit of Glory no more fears

The wicked ones what's on their fields you better stay away

Poison deadly snakes are there in midst of iron and dark clay

My flood will come, fire, brimstone, all together with my wrath

Be swept away as they ignored the Truth and Life, The Way, the narrow path
